

THE 11TH INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF THE HIGH INSTITUTE OF PUBLIC HEALTH ROLE OF PUBLIC HEALTH TOWARDS UNIVERSAL HEALTH COVERAGE: GLOBAL AND NATIONAL PERSPECTIVES

WELCOME

It gives me great pleasure to welcome you all to participate in and actively contribute to the “11th International Conference of the High Institute of Public Health (HIPH): Alex Health 2024”, planned to be held during 24-25 November 2024, in Alexandria, Egypt. Many national and international scientists and agencies are expected to join the HIPH, the oldest public health academic institution in the Middle East and North Africa, this important biennial event. Over two days, plenary presentations, panel and round table discussions ,and scholarly presentations will be exploring UHC concepts applications, experiences and research outcomes in Egypt, the Eastern Mediterranean and beyond.

We encourage you to submit your abstracts related to the conference main theme: “Role of Public Health Towards Universal Health Coverage (UHC): Global and National Perspectives” and other topics related to health-related Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) to be shared, presented and discussed during the Conference deliberations

On behalf of the scientific and organizing committees of Alex Health I look forward to personally welcome you all to the HIPH ,2024 located at our beloved city of Alexandria: the pearl of the Mediterranean in Egypt.

Sincerely,
Prof Heba ElKady
Dean, High Institute of Public Health
